

OCTOBER 2025

STUDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES

WHAT'S POPPING?

Financial Aid Day (third Wednesday in October) celebrates professionals who help students access college funding.

CURRENT STUDENTS

Don't Delay Getting Your Financial Aid!

Not sure if you have outstanding financial aid requirements?

Log into the Financial Aid Portal, Net Partner to review your status:
<https://netpartner.oakwood.edu>

1. From the Menu, select Accept/Decline Awards to make sure no aid is in pending status. Don't forget to SUBMIT any changes.
2. Then from the Menu, go to Documents and Messages to complete and upload any forms listed as Not Received or Incomplete.

Need help? Stop by the Financial Aid Office to speak with your counselor. We're here to answer your questions and guide you every step of the way!

We Appreciate You!

There's nothing the Financial Aid Office values more than students who complete their financial aid requirements on time!

When you submit all your documents early, it helps ensure your aid is processed and disbursed without delay ensuring a smooth semester. Thank you for doing your part to keep things running efficiently!

Help the Financial Aid Team CELEBRATE Financial Aid Day this month by checking in and ensuring your financial aid file is complete.

FAFSA HELP

FOR OAKWOOD UNIVERSITY STUDENTS!

Call 1-877-845-9883
for assistance.

Monday - Thursday, 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. (CST)
Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (CST)

● Why Plan Ahead?

Planning ahead ensures you have time to complete your FAFSA accurately, gather required documents, and resolve any issues before deadlines.

Submitting early gives you access to the maximum amount of financial aid available, including limited grants and scholarships that are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.

It also helps you avoid last-minute stress and stay on track for a smooth registration and clearance process.
